

JOB TITLE	Machine Operator
DEPARTMENT	Operations
REPORTS TO	COO
LOCATION	Bland, Virginia
EMPLOYEE TYPE	Full-time

Wilderness Company

Wilderness Mountain Water Company bottles one of the finest sources of artesian water on earth. Our mission is to honor the natural and sustainable water source by partnering with the best consumer brands in the world to make healthy and innovative beverages.

Our culture is one based on Quality & Safety. We are a good place to work and we prioritize quality training programs, employee health and happiness, and, above all, safety.

Wilderness Mountain Water Company's leadership team has a long history of building extraordinarily successful consumer brands, products, and – most importantly – teams. We are looking for team members who bring positive energy and professionalism to the job every day.

We offer a robust compensation and benefits package as well as career training incentives and bonus opportunities.

Job Summary:

Wilderness is seeking a Machine Operator to join the Manufacturing Team in Bland, VA. The Operator is responsible for production and the quality of production at Wilderness and for maintaining the facility. This position ensures that company and regulatory agencies standards are met and that all policies and procedures are being followed in production.

Key Responsibilities:

- Follow all GMP's, Safety requirements as required by Pressed and regulatory agencies
- Operate pallet jacks, and equipment
- Prepare packaging and machines based on specs
- Understanding of production schedule and SOPs
- Maintain the facility from a sanitation and housekeeping standpoint, including cleaning, sanitizing and storage of equipment and tools
- Ensure food safety by following all regulations implemented by Wilderness QA
- Perform all duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- High school diploma or equivalent required
- Must be able to work in a cold environment
- Must be able to lift at least 50 lbs.
- Attention to detail, basic math functions
- Able to do repetitive work safely
- Ability to maintain confidential company information in the strictest of confidence
- Ability to read, write, and speak English
- Insanely collegial with an A+ attitude – must come to work on your toes!

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer. We respect and seek to empower each individual and support the diverse cultures, perspectives, skills and experiences within our workforce.